For the Australian Stock Horse Society Special Services Award.

Prizes:

- The winner of the Volunteer of the Year Award will receive a certificate with a special pin

The Special Services Awards will be presented at the Australian Stock Horse Society Annual General Meeting.

Nomination Procedure:

I understand that these awards are not necessarily awarded annually and that there is no limit to the number of awards given.

Nominations may be made by any Australian Stock Horse Society Member and must be endorsed by their Branch or State Management Council.

Nominations for the Australian Stock Horse Society Special Services Awards are due by Thursday, 10th May 2018.

On a separate sheet, outline why the nominee deserves this award. The Award may be given to individuals who have worked over a long period or contributed through a number of extraordinary single efforts for the Society and its promotion.

Length of a Membership with the Society by itself does not fulfill the requirements of this award.

The ASHS Special Services Nominee must be a current financial Member of the Society and must be over 18 years of age.

Description:

The Special Services Awards are to recognise individuals that have contributed to their Branch, the Australian Stock Horse breed and/or the Society over a number of years. The award can also be awarded to Members who have contributed through extraordinary single efforts.

2016 Winners
